

Rules of Distribution of Elder Law Handbook

This Elder Law Handbook is published by the Tarrant County Bar Association, a non-profit organization. The purpose of this handbook is to provide a reference publication for the elderly population of our community. Please contact the Tarrant County Bar Association at (817) 338-4092 for copies. Copies are limited so the following rules apply so long as sufficient copies are available.

1. One copy of the Elder Law Handbook is free of charge to individuals.
2. Copies of the Elder Law Handbook are free of charge to non-profit organizations who offer services for the elder population of our community.
3. Copies of the Elder Law Handbook are free of charge to members of the Tarrant County Bar Association for use in assistance to the public.
4. A maximum of 30 copies of the Elder Law Handbook will be distributed at one time.
